

FOSTER TALENT · DANCE RESUME

Lucille White

DANCER · CHOREOGRAPHER · TEACHER · MOVEMENT DIRECTOR

Austin, TX Height 5'7" @lucillexrose

Lucille White is an Austin-based dancer, choreographer and performer with over 20 years of dance training and nine years of choreography and teaching. A member of BSCTHeads Crew, the competitive hip-hop collective directed by Prince Imo, she competed at World of Dance 2026, and her choreography has earned Starpower's Choreographer's Excellence Award. She danced on the 78th Line of the Kilgore College Rangerettes and holds a BFA in Performance and Choreography from Texas State University.

Professional Experience

BSCTHeads Crew

Dancer · Competitive hip-hop collective directed by Prince Imo

Competed with the crew at World of Dance 2026, and performed in the live show The Oven and at the Hype Dallas Choreographers Showcase.

2026

Office Siren

Dancer · Short dance film by Anabelle Maples

Commercial dance films

Dancer · Prince Imo

The Dance Project

Dancer, performer and choreographer · Austin performance collective

Performs and choreographs for the collective's live productions.

3 years

Synergy Dance Studio · MA Dance Company

Choreographer and educator · also freelance

Choreographs and teaches competitive and studio work, earning the Choreographer's Excellence Award at Starpower and the highest overall score at Inferno Dance Competition.

9 years

Teams & Organizations

Kilgore College Rangerettes

78th Line

2 years

Training

BFA, Performance and Choreography

Texas State University

20+ years of dance training

Heels, hip-hop, contemporary, jazz, jazz funk, modern, street and commercial

Special Skills

- Movement direction and choreography
- Creative and artistic direction
- Freestyle and improvisation
- Dance for camera
- Live entertainment and stage performance
- Movement coaching
- Modeling, fashion styling and curation

Awards & Achievements

Choreographer's Excellence Award

Starpower

Highest overall score

Inferno Dance Competition